

by Swee Lim Cheah

This is a tank I basically started to "test" some plants. The starting point was a triangular hardscape, which evolved a lot throughout the tank's life. In the beginning it had a hill dominated by a tree and below this a dead tree hanging over a river. Gradually it transformed into a coloured jungle with a dark entry letting the imagination wander...

Technique

Aquarium:	JUWEL
Volume:	100 L
Light:	4 x 39W
Gravel:	Pouzzolane, New Amazonia, Akadama, Florabase,
Filter:	Eheim 2213
CO2:	1 bubble per second
Fertiliser (weekly):	Premium + Specialised Fertiliser
Maintenance (hours per week):	½-1

Plants used in this layout

1)	Microsorium pteropus 'Trident'	(008G)	2 pcs.
2)	Hottonia palustris	(027)	2 pcs.
3)	Ludwigia palustris 'Super Red'	(035B)	2 pcs.
4)	Alternanthera reineckii 'Rosanervig'	(023D)	4 pcs.
5)	Bacopa monnieri 'Compact'	(044A)	4 pcs.
6)	Limnophila hippuridoides	(047C)	1 pcs.
7)	Hemianthus callitrichoides 'Cuba'	(048B)	1 pcs.
8)	Vesicularia ferriei 'Weeping'	(003B POR)	3 pcs.
9)	Riccardia chamedryfolia	(003D)	3 pcs.